

Richard and Linda Grimaldi send an email with results of each race. See below for the June 1 racing recap.

Oh my! Oh my! Joey, the tortoise, Stutz didn't show up. But we all knew that since the Tortoise was preparing dinner for the poker gang that night. Rumor has it that he forgot to turn on the slow cookers, so everyone had to wait hours to eat. He then proceeded to take their money.

Mikey 2 times showed up early as usual closely followed by Ennie (John), Moe (Scott), Sniffles (Richard) and the Rat Mallone.

Yesterday, I observed that we are all getting better except for Ennie who has trouble counting to five. Moe with his Bandit keeps on winning but the biggest surprise of all was twitchy fingers Addis who won several heats. Thanks to Mennie (Rad) for setting up the course.

Next week we should have everyone in addition to my son, wife, and grandson who's a two-year-old. God help us!

Heat 1

Mike and Dwyane at one end

John and Richard at the other end

Heat 2

Joe and Ray at one end

Rad and Scott at the other end

Disclaimer: Any information that occurs in this Newsletter may or may not be correct. Any relation to actual events is purely coincidental. This Author is not subject to any lawsuit brought on by the information herein. The names used in this Newsletter are real to protect the innocent.

Linda and Richard